For Your Consideration... "A set of "Selahs" to start the year

"Christian life involves life-long learning."

L. Gregory Jones

"As a church examines itself and pays attention to the unique gifts and passions of the members God sends it, it will begin to perceive and understand its unique mission."

Larry Shallenberger

"The most mature person is not the person who has accumulated the most information about Jesus, but whose heart has been most transformed."

Dave Ferguson

"Pain is weakness leaving the body."
Matt Schroeder

"How many times does it take to create church tradition? Only once...if it successful."

"One of the great tragedies of human history is that while those who are motivated by greed and power and violence have forged the future of their liking, too many of those who long for a better world have sat passively by, watching and wishing the world could be different."

Erwin McManus

"Courage is going from failure to failure without losing enthusiasm."

Winston Churchill

"Age doesn't matter unless you're cheese."

Rodney Dangerfield

"Fanaticism is overcompensation for doubt."

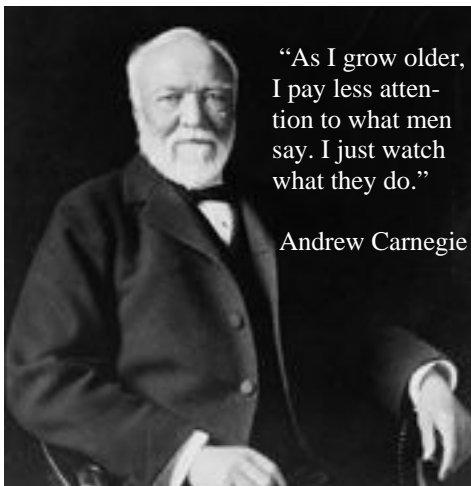

Carl Jung

"A fanatic has been described as a person who, when unsure of his direction, doubles his speed."

Charles Hummel

"If I had my life to live over again, I would have cried and laughed less while watching television - and more while watching life."

Erma Bombeck

"As I grow older, I pay less attention to what men say. I just watch what they do."

Andrew Carnegie

"The church is what the church does."

Craig Van Gelder

"Starting (a new church / ministry) is like scaling an unclimbed face - you don't know what the mountain will throw at you, so you must pick the right partners, who share your values, on whom you can depend and who can adapt."

Jim Collins

"There are three particular temptations that assail Christian leaders: the temptation to shine; the temptation to whine and the temptation to recline"
